Hey Josh,

Ok, thanks very much. If you could help that would be great. I think it would be helpful if we could talk for a few minutes this week. We probably don't need that much time. I've put a meeting on the calendar for 11am eastern on Tuesday. If that does not work let me know or just pick a different time.

My understanding is that the due date for all materials is mid August. But our rough timing is to complete the papers by the end of July or maybe a bit sooner. This will hopefully allow time for edits/comments. In terms of level of detail and length, my goal is to keep the papers as short as possible. The BENM paper is probably too long.

Hey Ben,

I'd absolutely be willing to discuss. I'd need a more information on the timeframe and expectations for content (i.e., similar level as the Bears Ears?). This coming week is going to be difficult for me to breakaway from prior commitments.

Hey Josh,

This is just a question. Would you be interested, or willing, to take the lead on drafting papers for 2 or 3 of the monuments? It would certainly help us out as this seems to be a big workload. Of course we can discuss>
